Preface

The continuing interest in African newspapers as a reference source, especially for political and economic developments in Africa, has prompted the Serial and Government Publications Division to revise this comprehensive list of the Library of Congress's extensive holdings of African newspapers. This updates the Library's holdings cited in the November 1977 edition. There are 931 African newspaper titles listed of which some 322 are newly reported titles. These holdings include both hard copy and positive microfilm. We have not provided the location of master negative microfilm, for that information is available in Newspapers in Microform, Foreign Countries, 1948-1972, 1973-1977 (Washington: Library of Congress, 1973, 1978) and its annual supplements.

The fifty-two countries covered by this work are listed alphabetically with each title similarly arranged under the city of publication. The frequency of publication, when known, is given by a symbol after each title, and, where available, the date of establishment is also supplied.

The dates of holdings are the inclusive dates of the issues and are indicated in abbreviated form. For example: 1936-1956. May 3-Oct. 31 indicates that the Library has the issues for the title, in complete or almost complete form, for the period of May 3, 1936, to and including October 31, 1956. The reader should always keep in mind that in the majority of cases the Library's microfilm holdings of African newspapers are incomplete. For example, the microfilm holdings of L'Essor (Bamako, Mali), a title filmed at this library, are listed as 1961 + . Though most of the months for the years since 1961 are included on film, there are some years where whole weeks and even some months are missing from the filmed file. In order to know what periods are missing from any given file the reader is encouraged to contact the Serial Division directly.

Generally the language of publication is omitted, except when:

- (a) the language varies from the language, or languages, most generally used for publications in the country;
- (b) the language of publication varies from the language of publication of the title, or the title does not indicate clearly the language of publication;
- (c) the publication is issued in two or more languages;
- (d) the title is in Arabic, Amharic (or other languages of Ethiopia), or Yiddish. The reader should keep in mind that newspapers published in these languages are held in the African and Middle Eastern Division rather than in the general newspaper collection. The Chinese language title of Mauritius is available in the Asian Division.

Also when the note "In the vernacular" is used it is an indication that the language has not been identified.

John Pluge, Jr., Assistant to the Head of the Newspaper Section, Serial and Government Publications Division, compiled this bibliography with the invaluable assistance of Bernard A. Bernier, Frank J. Carroll, and Kathleen Y. Hinkle, also of the Serial Division. The Serial Division is indebted to the following Library employees without whose aid this work could not have been accomplished: George D. Selim, Near East Section, Beverly Ann Gray, African Section, and Myron M. Weinstein, Hebraic Section, African and Middle Eastern Division; and James C. Armstrong, Field Director, Library of Congress Office, Nairobi, Kenya.

The information in this guide is complete through June 1983.
